Family Fun Activities
90 minutes

Objective/Goal:

This is a warm-up activity which is a fun way for participants to interact with one another. The participants will be brainstorming activities that families like to do.

Materials:

Participants need:
- optional-picture cards

Facilitator needs:

- whiteboard
- whiteboard markers
- Optional: Timer

Procedure: (Warm-up)
15 minutes

Before the Activity:

- 1) Write the sentence starter: "Families like to _____" on the whiteboard.
- 2) Ask the whole group (whole class) what are some activities that families like to do.
- 3) Brainstorm together.
- 4) Point to the sentence starter and instruct the participants to use this sentence.
- 5) Have everyone seated together in a circle-facing each other.
- 6) Introduction: The facilitator will explain activity.
 - I. Begin by saying, "Families like to go on vacations"
 - II. The next participant on the left, says the sentence starter:
Families like to go on picnics together.
 - III. Everyone takes turns sharing their ideas.
 - IV. Next, divide the whole group (whole class) into 2 teams. Give them 5 minutes to think-up of original ideas (ideas that were not shared as a whole group, before) together.

- V. Each team member will share their results.
- VI. Optional: The facilitator can write their responses on the whiteboard.
- VII. The facilitator can keep track by marking tally marks for each team on the whiteboard:
- VIII.

TEAM A	TEAM B
11	1111

7. The team with the most responses wins.

Note: This activity can also be tailored for lower levels of English by showing them picture cards to help them come-up with ideas. After they played it a number of times, it becomes easier and easier for the participants to do.

For Intermediate level: The facilitator can divide the whole group into 2 teams.
The facilitator can give a description of a family activity.
The first person from a team that can guess it correctly wins a point for his/ her team.

Ex. Facilitator: This is a family activity where you go to see many different animals.

Kim rings the bell first. Kim: go to a zoo

Facilitator: Right. Team A gets a point. This is a family activity where you are inside a large building with many displays and objects from the past.

Manpreet: go to a museum

Facilitator: Right. Team A gets a point.

FAMILY ROLE-PLAY EXAMPLE

Hello, we are the Family Wang. Ping and I have taken some time off and we have time to spend some time with our family.

Jing: What should we do as a family?

Ping: I am not sure. Mohamed what do you think?

Mohamed: We should go shopping at West Edmonton Mall.

Rita: No, we should go on vacation.

Ping: What should we do?

Jing: I think we should just go to the park and relax.

Rita: Sure, we can have a picnic.

Ping: That sounds good, but I would rather go out for dinner.

Mohamed: Let's have a vote.
