Getting to Know Each Other
60 minutes

Objective/Goal:

Gives participants the opportunity to review vocabulary.

Materials:

Participants need:
- Optional: Question Sheets (Attachments #1-3):
Sheet A ("Do you like...?")
Sheet B (Do you have...?),
Sheet C (extra- a variety of questions) - enough for one team (7 or 8 copies)

Facilitator needs:

- whiteboard
- whiteboard markers

Procedure: (Work-out)
60 minutes

Before class:

- 1) Write "Good morning" or "Good afternoon" on the whiteboard. Then the facilitator writes his/her name on the whiteboard.
- 2) The Facilitator introduces himself or herself to the group.
- 3) Have the participants write their names on name cards [take a piece of paper and fold it (a heavier paper works best)].
- 4) Divide the whole group into 2 teams. One side is the "question team" the other team is the "answer team". The participants stand-facing each other.
- 5) Instruct the participants that they will be asking each other simple questions. Write the following phrases/ prompts on the whiteboard:
"Yes, I do like...." Or
"No, I do not like..." Or: "No, I don't like..."
- 6) Ask the participants to help you write a list of questions on the whiteboard:
Ex. Do you speak English?
Participant: Yes, I do.

Ex. Do you like dancing?
Participant: No, I do not like dancing.
Ex. Do you like cooking?
Participant: Yes, I like cooking. etc.

7) Demonstrate.

Alternate Activity:

Give the "Question Team" a question sheet to each person. They ask questions to their partners.

Encourage the participants to elaborate on their questions. Using other questions starting with ex. "What, Where, How, Why...".

Ask for volunteers to come up in front of the whole group and present their partners. The facilitator can model:
